WHY I AM A LION – In recognition of the Fulton Lions Club's 100th birthday this year, members are sharing their response to Why I Am A Lion. This week, Lions Club member Gwin Wood shares his response: "To be a part of the town we live in, an organization that I can be a member of with my wife, to make the Banana Festival bigger and better every year, and to help young people see better," he said. He is from Alabama but a friend and coach asked him to come to Fulton to coach in 1971. He has been here ever since. He taught and coached at Fulton City High School for several years and then went to South Fulton High School. He taught wellness, drivers education and coached football and baseball. People often ask me which sport he liked to coach the most and his reply is, "I like them both!" He retired in 2012. (Photo submitted)
