40.0% from three while scoring a tournament-high 12 points in a Sweet 16 victory over Maryland and going for seven points and two rebounds in the National Championship Game against Houston which included a 1-for-2 trip to the free throw line with 19 seconds left to play to put Florida on top 65-63 which wound up being the final score.

Despite being a first-year Wildcat, he will be counted on as an immediate leader as one of UK's just two seniors (Otega Oweh) and as the only player on the 16-man roster with a national championship ring as he looks to become the first player in NCAA history to win a national championship with two different schools.

"I'm trying to use my past experiences from my previous school and trying to bring it here because, obviously, I know the goal is to win number nine," Aberdeen said. "Just bringing what I was taught my past years at the University of Florida and bringing it here, trying to get number nine, I know the fans want that. I know we want that, especially and all the coaches and players.

"I'm making it my job this year to bring a lot of leadership and bring guys together and just reminding them what our main focus is for the year."

While his time at his home-state school, which he remained committed to after signing on to play for coach Mike White who left for Georgia, paving the way for Todd Golden to take over, ended in two NCAA Tournament appearances, an SEC Tournament and NCAA Tournament title, Aberdeen not only sees Kentucky as having the potential to having more on-court success than last year's national title winning Gators but for his experience off the court to be even better than it was in Gainsville.

"We had a lot of great players at Florida, especially the tall bigs. Bigs that love to run there, and we have just as much as here; our bigs love to run, they play defense, and they play at a fast pace. So I think the things that we've got here are just as good, or even better," Aberdeen said.

"I think our team has got a real shot of winning number nine this year ... I think we'll be ready to shock a lot of people this year."

Aberdeen's decision to transfer was questioned by many. Now, it appears clear. He simply had the utmost confidence in Pope and Kentucky to deliver the same winning culture while doing so in front of Big Blue Nation, which made the opportunity too much to pass up on.
