The Hart County Fiscal Court met Tuesday, June 10 in the courtroom. After Judge/Executive Joe Choate called the meeting to order, Bro. Ben Benningfield opened the meeting with prayer. Ladies with the Daughters of the American Revolution presented the court with a certificate of appreciation for the proper display of the United States Flag on the courthouse lawn. Judge Choate recognized Jacob Twyman, Maintenance Supervisor for the county.

All departments gave reports, including Jailer Israel Bergenson, who informed the court there were a total 131 in the county jail. Sheriff Jeff Wilson informed the court that the dog in the K-9 unit had been retired, and the sheriff's department was in the process of obtaining a new dog for the department.
