

Oliver's big day leads Trigg past Calloway

BY TORRENCE BATES
CADIZ RECORD SPORTS

Tember Oliver did it all on Tuesday, putting the team on her back both in the circle and at the plate to lead Trigg County to a dominant 12-1 road win over Calloway County.

The Lady Wildcats didn't waste any time getting comfortable, hanging five runs on the board in the opening frame. Livia Breckel sparked the rally with an RBI single, followed by a two-run knock from Oliver. Lily Eagleson and Maddie Smith kept the pressure on, driving in runs of their own to give Trigg a commanding early cushion.

While the offense was humming, Oliver was busy shutting the door on the Lady Lakers. She was nearly untouchable, tossing a complete game and allowing just one run on three hits. Perhaps most impressively, she didn't walk a single batter while racking up seven strikeouts.

Oliver eventually decided to provide her own run support, launching a solo home run to right field in the fifth and adding an RBI double in the seventh for good measure.

Calloway County finally got on the board in the sixth with a solo shot from Emerson Herndon, but by then, the game was firmly in Trigg's control. The Lady Wildcats finished the day with a staggering 16 hits, led by three-hit performances from both Oliver and Breckel. Veyda Grinols, Eagleson, and Jazzy Tejada also turned in multi-hit games in the winning effort.

Next up, Trigg will host Crittenden County tonight at 6 p.m.

Trigg County falls to Lyon on walk-off

BY TORRENCE BATES
CADIZ RECORD SPORTS

Trigg County went toe-to-toe with Lyon County in a back-and-forth thriller that saw lead changes, defensive stops, and a gut-wrenching finish as the Wildcats fell 5-4.

Ty Gootee was the engine for the Wildcats all afternoon. He wasted no time putting Trigg on the board, fighting off a full count in the top of the first to lace an RBI single. Gootee wasn't just a threat at the plate; he was a workhorse on the mound, carving through the Lyon County lineup for six and one-third innings. He racked up eight strikeouts and kept the Wildcats in the hunt despite the pressure of a hostile road environment.

The Lyons managed to claw back to tie it in the third, but Trigg showed their grit in the late innings. Capitalizing on Lyon County miscues, the Wildcats manufactured a run in the sixth to reclaim a 3-2 lead.

However, the seventh inning proved to be a roller coaster. After Lyon County tied the game on a Cohen Wiggins triple down the right-field line, the momentum shifted for good. The Wildcats struggled to find the final out as the Lyons managed to squeeze across the winning run in the bottom of the seventh, handing Trigg a tough-to-swallow walk-off loss.

Trigg County finished with hits from Gootee, Noah Hawkins, Bentley Reynolds, James Garnett, and Carson Kline. While the Wildcats played clean enough to win, giving up zero earned runs against Lyon starter Easton White, the final bounce simply didn't go their way.
