

TEXAS TIDBITS

Why continuing to celebrate APRIL FOOLS' DAY is unclear; still a day of modern day pranks and jokes, like a sign pasted on your back saying "kiss me" or "kick me", was fun years ago but silly now. This all begin when King Charles IX of France decided to switch the new year date from March to January first in 1564. Many refused to change and made jokes about the calendar change, thus April Fools Day was started. This is your history lesson for April 1, 2026, the one day of the year when pranks, jokes, and mischief are expected. Enjoy. A visit from friends, Jim and Kayee Best of Taylormill, Kentucky, was enjoyed at Goode homeplace as Jim recalled his teenage hunting days on the Goode Farm. The Bests have Washington County ties with the Best and McMurphy families. Reading is a favorite passtime for many, yours truly included. Reading Wendell Berry is such a pleasure. Recently gifted a book of his short stories "A Place In Time" is great reading. Berry now in his 90s has written over 50 book and lives in Kentucky with his wife Tanya on a farm. QUOTE of the WEEK; "I believe the world was created and approved by Love, that it subsists, coherery, and endures by love and that is so far as it is redeemable, it can be redeemed only by Love." Wendell Berry (Kentucky author and poet)
